

SHOUL

By Dan Moran

---

Dan Moran is a self-taught artist who has been drawing for as long as he can remember. He has worked with many mediums, including acrylic and oil paint, stone and clay sculpture, collage, etching, and of course drawing. Drawing is his favorite, and his weapon of choice is the black ball-point pen. <http://www.cthulhusex.com/> Dan Moran's former web site, "Art of Darkness," has been down, but the web pages are archived on the "Way Back Machine" (<http://www.archive.org/index.php>)—type in the following old URL: <http://www.sover.net/~faust666>
