

The Loser

By: Kevin Magnus

Together I am Alone
Nothing more than your drone

With years of waiting for my peace
When will it be over when will it cease

All I want is to be whole
But yet I am dead and null

After years when can I be free;
To be a person- to be me.

Bio: Kevin Magnus has been a poet for almost eight years and has been a contributor to The World of Myth since issue number one. After taking a short hiatus to find his purpose in life, he returns and looks to begin a new trek with brand new and better poetry.
